WELLINGTON MAKER FAIRE 2018

Be part of New Zealand's first Maker Faire, right here in Wellington. It's going to be an incredible, big day, full of inspiring curiosity, and hands-on making goodness. Play a key part in bringing this event to life!

Volunteer opportunities will range from assisting Makers create their set up prior to the event, and pack it down at the conclusion, giving Makers breaks throughout the event, assisting with traffic management, being a point of information for event attendees or honing your stage management skills. This is a great chance to be involved in one of Wellington's up and coming iconic events.

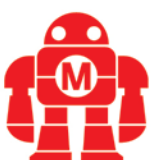

What do I get from volunteering for Wellington Maker Faire?

First and foremost: fun! You'll be getting the chance to meet and work alongside some of New Zealand's most exciting makers and creators, get up and close with their creations. You'll be helping the public engage with the installations and activities. And of course, you'll be an integral part of New Zealand's first Maker Faire. You'll also be invited to the Maker Muster networking event, and discounts on food trucks onsite!

When will I be needed?

All shifts will be between 11am – 6pm on Saturday 3rd November, and 7am – 9pm on Sunday 4th November. You won't be needed for all these times, you can let us know when works for you. Even if you're only available for a few hours, you're welcome to sign up!
